

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 77

NUMBER 4

JUNE 2009

---

ANNUAL REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

FOREWORD

Agency Self-Regulation 859 Elizabeth Magill

ESSAY

Are Administrative Patent Judges
Unconstitutional? 904 John F. Duffy

REPORT

Transparency and Public Participation in the Federal Rulemaking Process:
Recommendations for the
New Administration 924 *Cary Coglianese,
Heather Kilmartin,
and Evan Mendelson*

BOOK REVIEW

Is a Competent Federal Government
Becoming Oxymoronic? 973 Peter H. Schuck

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW ESSAYS

Early to Bed for Federal Regulations:
A New Attempt to Avoid "Midnight
Regulations" and Its Effect on Political Accountability 992 Christopher Carlberg

Morrison, Edmond, and the 1002 Andrew Croner
Power of Appointments

Challenges to Inclusion on the “No-Fly List” Should Fly in District Court: Considering the Jurisdictional Implications of Administrative Agency Structure	1015	Shaina N. Elias
Early Termination Fees: Fair Game or Federally Preempted?	1033	Ben Everard
Medicare Part D: Rights Without Remedies, Bars to Relief, and Miles of Red Tape	1044	Elliot Golding
The Fault, Dear PCAOB, Lies Not in the Appointments Clause, but in the Removal Power, That You Are Unconstitutional	1063	Julian Helisek
Independent Litigation Authority and Calls for the Views of the Solicitor General	1080	Elliott Karr
Patent Reexamination and the Seventh Amendment	1101	Megan Keane
A New Interpretation, an Absurd Result: How HHS Is Short-Changing Children with Severe Mental Illness	1114	Stephen Satterfield