

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 79

NUMBER 3

APRIL 2011

ARTICLE

- Back to the Future: Discovery Cost Allocation and Modern Procedural Theory 773 Martin H. Redish and Colleen McNamara

ESSAY

- The Paradox of McDonald v. City of Chicago 823 David S. Cohen

BOOK REVIEW

- The Battle to Protect the American Public Will Become Even More Difficult 845 Richard J. Pierce, Jr.

NOTES

- A Solution to the Spoliation Chaos: Rule 37(e)'s Unfulfilled Potential to Bring Uniformity to Electronic Spoliation Disputes 860 Alexander B. Hastings
- National Standards and Tests: The Worst Solution to America's Educational Problems . . . Except for All the Others 890 Thomas F. Risberg
- American Idol: The Domestic and International Implications of Preferencing the Highly Educated and Highly Skilled in U.S. Immigration Law 926 Kayleigh Scalzo
- Money for Senate Seats and Other Seventeenth Amendment Politicking: How to Amend the Constitution to Prevent Political Scandal During the Filling of Senate Vacancies 960 Daniel T. Shedd